Mrs. Lewis L. Chapman
Smithfield, Virginia

My dear Mrs. Chapman:

Some years ago you and my mother, Mrs. J. Thomas Marshall, had some correspondence relative to tracing the Applewhite line.

I have been invited to join a local chapter of the D.A.R. and since my mother probably has all the necessary material, I thought I would go in on the strength of my Applewhite ancestor. Will you prepare the papers for me? And can you give me an approximate idea of the charges?

I think it would be interesting (if it isn't too expensive) to trace the line all the way back to the ancestor who was a member of the House of Burgesses, but I should like to have the D.A.R. papers with as little delay as possible, since I have already allowed a good part of the time since I was invited to lapse.

I shall be very grateful for your help.

Sincerely yours,

Elizabeth Marshall
